THE EPISCOPAL CONCERT.—The Episcopal concert, in the handsome hall of the Kimball House, on Thursday night, was a success in every particular. The attendance was large, fashionable, enthusiastic and brilliant. It was a fine display of elegant dressing and handsome ladies. The platform improvised was very attractive. The performance was magnificent. Every voice was a good one.

The opening duet by Stevens and Angier from Martha was well done. Both gentlemen have excellent voices well trained. The Cavatina from Lucia by Mrs. H. M. Stokes carried the house. She has a voice of pathetic sweetness, and when encored carried the audience with the touching familiar old song of "Old Folks at Home."

The duet from Ernani, by Mrs. P. H. Snook and Hugh Angier, was artistically rendered. Mrs. Snook is well known for her remarkable vocal powers.

The Violin Solo was handsomely done by Mr. Burke. We cannot speak in detail of each song. All were well done. Prof. Steel played that splendid Transcription from Rigoleth faultlessly.

Perhaps the gem of the evening was "L Estasio," by Mrs. Stokes.

A young girl pupil of Prof. Steel gave an impromptu performance on the Piano very finely.

Let us have more of such concerts.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—Atlanta, May 16, 1872.—In pursuance to a call the Democrats of the Seventh Ward met and organized by electing the following permanent officers and Executive Committee:

First Vice President—T. R. Ripley.
Second Vice President—M. C. Kiser.
Third Vice President—N. R Fowler.
Treasurer—J. C. McMillan.

Captain Newman offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Seventh Ward Democratic Club hereby ratify the appointment made from this ward on the Democratic Executive Committee of the county.

On motion the club adjourned subject to the call of the Executive Committee.

J. F. EDWARDS, Secretary.

FIRE.—This morning, between 12 and 1 o'clock, a small building—partly wood and brick—on Hunter street, in rear of Ergenzinger's, was destroyed by fire. The building was used as a hay warehouse by Adair & Bro., and had a quantity of hay in it at the time. The building was not insured. The hay was insured in the Liverpool, London & Globe Insurance Companies for $400. The fire was the undoubted work of an incendiary.

A revival is progressing in the Methodist Church in Covington, and there seems to be more interest manifested than in any revival we have had for years. Chickens and pigs are dying up in Newton county.—Covington Enterprise.

The work upon the Augusta Canal enlargement is progressing with commendable rapidity. Two deserters were captured in Augusta Monday morning. They belonged to Company K, Third Artillery.—Chronicle and Sentinel.

We saw a day or two since a bundle of red clover hay, grown the present season on the premises of Major R. J. Moses, some five miles from the city. The stalks were some two feet in lenth, fully developed and well cured.—Columbus Enquirer.

George Elkins, colored prisoner in the Columbus jail, showed fight on the 15th instant and refused to permit the jailor to enter the room where he was with six others. The jailor called in some of the police force, when one of them shot George with a shot gun in the wrist, arm and right breast before he could quiet him.—Columbus Sun.

Rev. C. Dowe has bought of Colonel Hulsey, of Atlanta, the old Marshall College in Griffin with two acres of ground attached. We suppose he will rebuild the college and establish a first class female school. W. H. Miles has brought to this office a cotton stalk with twelve branches and over ten inches high.—Griffin Star.

Mr. R. Parks Lee is very ill, not expected to live. Rev. W. H. Milburn will lecture in Griffin on the 19th instant. From Captain Drake, conductor on the Griffin and North Alabama Railroad, we learn that the tobacco factory of J. E. Panky, at Sharpsburg, including machinery, 400 pounds of tobacco, and a buggy were consumed by fire on last Wednesday night.—Middle Georgian.

A negro man named Tom Haughton died in Greene county a few days ago from injuries received in a fight with Demsey Colby, another colored man. Henry Clay Nickolson, of Greensboro, died on Friday last. L. B. Willis has been elected Captain of the Greene Rifles; John S. Hall, First Lieutenant; W. H. Branch, Second Lieutenant; and E. L. Lewis, Third Lieutenant.—Greensboro Herald.

We understand that a corps of engineers will soon begin the survey of the railroad from Madison to Athens. On Wednesday last a Morgan county planter plowed up his cotton seed and found them rotten. Mr. J. H. Morgan, of this county, brought six bales of hay to market. It was a mixture of oats, clover and orchard grass. It was sold readily at $2 per hundred.—Appeal and Advertiser.

On the night of the 15th instant Mrs. James T. Reilly, wife of the druggist, poisoned herself by taking arsenic. At a late hour the unfortunate lady was slowly but surely sinking. Florida cucumbers sell in the Savannah market at three dollars per bushel. The Union Society, of Savannah, celebrated its 122d anniversary on the 15th at Betherda. A beautiful oration was delivered by R. N. Gourdin, Esq. The handsome First Presbyterian church, on Bull street, Savannah, is completed, and was lit up for the first time on the evening of the 15th. Savannah News.

Cholera is playing sad havoc with the chicken tribe of Calhoun. Mr. Charles Johnson died near Blue Springs last Tuesday. Mr. John Hunt, proprietor of the Pine Log Mills, died last week. The ball at the hotel in Calhoun on Monday night was a brilliant affair. Col. Lowe, and Dr. Billups, of Atlanta, were on hand; and the music discoursed by them was never excelled. Dr. A. Means has been appointed to address Gordon County Agricultural Society at its monthly fair in July. Gordon county has a Apiary Society, and Col. James Rogers is the President. Calhoun is to have an Episcopal Church. Parkins & Allen, of Atlanta, are the architects of the plan.—Calhiun Times.

The Directors of the Georgia Railroad held a meeting in Augusta on the 15th instant, relative to the Port Royal Railroad. The board accepted the second proposition of the Port Royal Railroad Company, and entered into a contract with it as follows: The Georgia Railroad, on its part, indorses $500,000 of the first mortgage bonds of the Port Royal Railroad immediately, while the Port Royal Company turns over $625,000 of its stock to the Georgia Railroad absolutely, and gives it a power of attorney to vote $900,000 additional of stock, the power of attorney to be irrevocable for three years, and the Georgia Railroad to have the option, at the end of that time, to purchase the stock at its market value. It really places the Port Royal Railroad under control of the Georgia Railroad Company. Dr. John C. Wilkes has been elected President of the Augusta and Hartwell Railroad, Mr. James Hope re-elected Treasurer, and Mr. Charles R. Abbott re-elected Secretary. Miss Olive Logan delivered her lecture on "Girls" in Augusta on Monday evening last.—Constitutionalist.

OUR BARTOW LETTER.

Something About Kingston--Hotels--Business--Cassville, Etc.

KINGSTON, GA., May 15, 1872.

Editors Constitution: It is a very solemn thing to visit an editor's sanctum—it's risky. Oh, if all the murders committed there were only known—of men and measures—the hopes blasted—the cruel fires that have crackled and burned—the products of genius they have turned to ashes! But I forbear. Notwithstanding here I stand with hat in hand and heart in mouth. My name is not Norval, nor live I on the Grampian hills. Please know me as John Upcountry, resident of Kingston.

By the by, as one loves to see his name and the name of his town in the papers, indulge a statement or two with reference to Kingston. In the first place, the county site of Bartow should be here and would be, if it was not somewhere else.

We are rather an old village, badly stunted in our youth. We have a splendid place to put a town, and are now working to put it there. Why is not Kingston a large flourishing town? is a question often propounded.

It equals the best watering place for health, and if it was not otherwise recorded we might conclude the water and climate could rejuvinate all the Sarahs and give to any female an Isaac. It is picturesque, accessible, with iron in profusion at its very door, while water power is in five minutes' walk of the depot. All we lack in the world is houses and business. Gentlemen had better invest in town lots before they get too high. Besides all this, Atlanta is only sixty miles off and spreading.

With a few more such men as Esquire Couch, and Rogers and Company, the houses and business would soon be here. The former party has built a hotel that would be respectable even in Atlanta. I think of it as connected with Kingston, as I thought of the Kimball in connection with Atlanta. It reminds me of a four-year old with his father's hat on. Nevertheless, Kimball isn't a bit too big, nor will be the "Metropolitan," (what's in a name?) where we have those five hundred visitors with daily conveyance to Saltpetre Cave.

Equally creditable is the splendid flouring mill of Rogers & Co., just outside our corporate limits, the machinery of which, competent men have assured me, is equal to the best they have seen in Georgia. A sack of the best new crop is booked already for THE CONSTITUTION. Oh, isn't it nice to be editor or preacher; and I would say for the encouragement of this latter class that chicken mast is uncommon heavy this spring.

But further of Kingston, improvement is manifest on every hand. Among other houses our irrepressible Methodist friends are building a "parsonage," which will be a credit to that denomination.

By the way, I am glad you have fully satisfied that numerous and influential body with reference to their founder, Mr. Wesley. But, if you please, when speaking of the M. E. Church South again, don't say they "seceded" from the Northern Church. There was a mutual agreement to divide, which could not have been consummated by the Southern Church alone, the other branch having control of the question numerically. If an apple be halved, can either part be "mother" apple? or could it be said that either had "seceded" from the other?

In my next, I propose looking in upon another one of the numerous villages and towns of what, in ante-bellum times was known as Cass county. And if it is in order, Messrs. Editors, with all my pride for the noble hero, whose deeds are sought to be perpetrated in the present name, I would thrice move for a return to the old names—Cass county and Cassville.

Did you ever visit Cassville in days when Judge Tripple lived; when the Underwoods were there with the Words and hosts of others? Ah, sir, those were glorious days, and Cassville was then a model village, with its two institutions of learning. Its standing chimneys are among the many monuments to Sherman. The book says "there is a sin unto death"—eternal death—for which we shall not pray; which shall not be forgiven, not in this world, nor in the world to come.

That sin was committed by the party named.

We'll go for Greeley if he will rebuild; and against Grant whether he does or no.

JOHN UPCOUNTRY.

Legislative.

The Illinois Legislature has passed an act giving county boards control of county convicts, and to provide work-houses for, and the employment of such convicts.

By a law recently passed in Michigan, two-thirds of the votes of any school district having more than three hundred children, are given power to locate sites for school buildings, and to borrow money to the amount of $15,000, for building and equipping a union school house.

Governor Smith Recognizes a Colored Militia Company.

The Macon Telegraph reports that Gov. Smith has recognized the "Lincoln Guards," a colored military organization of that city, and ordered the election of officers.

☞ Colonel Acton, of THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, while in Conyers some time since, walked up Center street, and some of our citizens thought he was an escaped convict from Josh Billings' Farmer's Almanac. He was supposed to be a traveling soap factory, but, notwithstanding his enormous proportions, he raised the subscription list of his paper to his own size.—Examiner.

The St Louis Republican has been keeping a register of the papers that support Greeley and Brown, and is publishing the names from day to day. In its issue of last Saturday it published the names of one hundred and sixty-eight papers on that line. In its issue of next day, it adds thirty-three more to the list. The thirty-three additional names are supplied by the States of Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky, Virginia, New York, Arkansas, Iowa, New Hampshire, Indiana, Mississippi, and Alabama.

A New Reason for Supporting Greeley.

The Madison Appeal, a very pronounced Democratic paper, believes it to be the policy of our people to look with favor on the Greeley nomination, and gives the following new and strong reason for its course:

> We want just such a ticket as this one run in the South, that the colored vote may be divided; and we believe that it can now be done successfully. We do not believe in the policy of one man controlling the entire colored vote, as has been done heretofore by the carpet-bagger. Once divided, they lose their prestige, and this large vote can and will be hereafter controlled by the Southern States.

☞ The Augusta Constitutionalist and Rome Courier are urging that the South should control the action of the Baltimore Convention. The former says:

> "This is the practical question: Shall there be three tickets before the people, or only two tickets? We are in favor of the policy of two tickets."

The latter says:

> "As we have before said, we do cordially approve this platform, and approving it, we do not care for the men who have been selected as its candidates, only to know that they are honest enough to carry out the principles thus laid down. This we believe Greeley and Brown to be, and believing them so, we can cheerfully support them for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States.

New Canaan in Georgia.

The Augusta Constitutionalist tells us about a new religious society that has moved to Georgia and settled on the Stearns place, eleven miles from Augusta on the Washington road. They number fifty persons, and look for as many more. They come from Springfield, Massachusetts, and other New England places.

Joseph T. Curry, of Springfield, is the leader, judge, religious instructor and dictator. Every one can preach when he wants to.

Their faith is their own interpretation of the Scriptures. They don't think water baptism needful. Saturday is their Sabbath, when they don't admit strangers. They call themselves the "New Canaan." They are quiet mechanics and farmers.

Several families seceded because Curry objected to one building two big a cottage, and are now occupying the Blodgett house in Augusta, purposing to remain.

Georgia Railway News.

The Georgia Railroad Directors, under threat from Judge Reese to apply for an injunction, reduced their indorsement of 1,000,000 to the Port Royal road to $500,000, by consent of Robins, Appleton & Co., representing the Port Royal Road.

The Georgia Road gets $625,000 of Port Royal Road stock, with power of attorney, for three years to vote $900,000 additional of stock, to have the option at the end of the three years to purchase the stock at its market value. This we get from the Augusta papers.

The Savannah and Charleston Road, under control of Robins, Appleton & Co., who obtained control of it for $100,000, was offered to the Georgia Road for $100,000 in bonds. The matter was referred to a committee of M. P. Stovall, E. E. Butler and George T. Jackson to report in June.

John C. Wilkes has been elected President of the Augusta and Hartwell Road, James Hope Treasurer, and Charles R. Abbott Secretary. Resolutions were passed to demand papers and property from H. A. Underwood, late President, and E. Wilson, Trustee, under contract with Hanford. The contract with Hanford was abrogated.

The subscribers to the Griffin and Madison Road have been assessed 40 per cent. on their stock, and are paying up promptly, says the Madison Appeal.

Mosby.

We regretted, some days back, to see a report that Mosby, the Virginia Confederate, [illegible] his services during the war, had [illegible] that he would stump the State for him against Greeley. The report was made by Colonel Forney, who was present, and we might have known that it was not true. Forney is too limber-tongued and possesses too facile a sense of truth not to alter facts to suit his interest. That Mosby should champion Grant who stands so hostile to us, in preference to Greeley who is pledged to amnesty, constitutional government, and the reform of the abuses of the Radical administration, was simply shocking.

We are glad to find that Mosby was misrepresented. The following shows his true status, and what he really told Grant:

COL. JOHN S. MOSBY'S POSITION.

We have seen a letter from Col. John S. Mosby to a friend in this city, in which reference is made to a reported conversation betwen Col. Mosby and President Grant. Referring to that report, Col. M. says: "I see I am reported as saying to Gen. Grant that I would support him 'even if a Democrat were nominated against him.' I do not care about coming out in the papers to correct this, but I hope my friends will not think that I said any such thing. On the contrary, I expressly told Grant that I would support the Democratic nominee, but as between him and Greeley I was in favor of the South going in for the one that would offer us the most generous terms; i. e., that the Philadelphia Convention must outbid Cincinnati."—Alexandria Gazette, May 11th.

☞ Colonel E. Y. Clarke, of THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION, was unremitting in his efforts from the outset to render the visit to Atlanta a pleasant one, and his brethren of the press are specially indebted to him for many of the agreeable features of the meeting. We take pleasure in tendering him our personal thanks for his kindness, and have every reason to believe that the expression will be joined in unanimously.—Forsyth Advertiser.

We cordially indorse the above. Colonel Clarke was bound to make the ink-slingers feel at home, and he deserves all the credit we can give him.—Macon Advertiser.

Georgia Crop News.

Merriwether county—Farmers have sad faces at bad stands of cotton. Numbers are plowing up and re-planting. What is up foreshadows a poor result. Corn looks well. Small grain flattering. Rain needed, says a writer in the Griffin Star.

Spaulding county—Line Creek District has 519 people, and an average of two and a half acres corn and two acres cotton planted to the hand; ninety-six horses and mules to be fed. A bale to three acres will give 350 bales. At twenty cents cotton would net sixty-five dollars to each person. Large average of oats, wheat, potatoes, etc., says the Griffin Star.

Cobb county—Unusual drought for May, doing injury to wheat and oats, which must be short. Corn and cotton retarded, says the Marietta Journal.

Newton county—Some farmers complain of hard ground, hard times and poor cotton stands. Others report good stands, and pay cash. Wheat crop poor, and oats almost a failure, says the Conyers, Examiner. Some citizens using guano on flowers.

Thomas county—Corn and cotton not suffering much from drought, but other crops are. Oat crop will be cut short without rain. Good time to clean crops. Considerable cotton yet to come up, says the Enterprise.

Cotton.

The receipts at all ports last week were 18,000 bales; 20,000 bales less than last year, and 28,000 bales less than two years since. The receipts at interior towns were 4,000 bales; 3,000 bales less than last year, and 4,000 less than two years since. It is likely the receipts will be 16,000 this week, compared with 45,000 last year and 43,000 the year before. And receipts at interior towns indicate 4,000 bales this week, compared with 6,000 bales last year, and 8,000 the year before.

The average of the thermometer for the past week was 83 at noon, and for one day was 90 at noon. No rain; two cloudy days, and the rest of the week clear and pleasant. Where the cotton plant is up and growing, it does not need rain at all—in fact, if all the cotton was up, it would be best that we should have no rain until the first of June, as by that time it would be entirely cleared of grass and well chopped out to a stand. Every one that has any knowledge of the cotton plant knows that a warm, dry May and moderately dry June to make a large crop, and so far this season we never saw the prospect better. It is true some late planting has failed to come up so far, but there is time enough yet. Cotton planted by the first of June will make a full crop if there is a late fall—as the cotton plant only requires 5½ months to make a full crop, and not eight months as some suppose. So if we do not have frost before the 20th of November, all cotton planted in the next two weeks will make a full crop. Last year a killing frost came November 15th; the year before November 25, year before that, November 12, year before that, November 24. So for four years, the average has been the 19th. There may yet be an overflow of the Mississippi in June, as many expect, but for several weeks past it has been slowly falling. We have just received a letter from Southwest Georgia, saying the loss of cotton lands by the floods in March will not exceed two per cent.—that cotton seed has been plenty at fifty cents per bushel, and the present appearance of the cotton crop never was better.

What the Political Leaders Say.

Hon. Simeon K. Wolfe, of New Albany, Indiana, a McClellan elector in 1864, is for a straight Democratic ticket.

Mr. Kerr, of Indiana, is reported to be against Greeley.

Ex-Senator Millian Allen, of Ohio, an old line Democratic Nestor, favors the endorsement of Greeley by the Democracy. He thinks Greeley the only Republican who has deep sympathy for the masses.

In Illinois, out of seventy-six Democratic papers, forty-four support Greeley, three favor a Democratic candidate, and twenty-nine have not been heard from.

General John C. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, General Dick Taylor, of Louisiana, Duncan Kenner, of the same State, and Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland, are reported to favor Greeley.

General Leslie Coombs and Garrett Davis, of Kentucky, warmly indorse Greeley.

At a Democratic Liberal platform meeting at Carbondale, Illinois, the home of Governor Palmer, Republican, Saturday night, the Governor made a bitter speech against Grant, and declared unequivocally his separation from the Republican party, and that he expects to vote for Democrats, and warned the Republicans to go home, not to trust but to whet up their swords for the coming conflict, which would be a war to the knife.

The position of Mr. Pendleton seems to be in doubt. The Cleveland Plaindealer says he told it that he should abide the action of the Baltimore Convention, and preferred Greeley to Grant.

John Forsyth, in an editorial letter to the Mobile Register, from New York, thinks there is an opportunity for a Democratic victory straight out, and for it, not "proposes to take passage in Capt. Greeley's ship." He thus writes of an interview with Greeley:

"He was very frank in his talk in the main, and I followed his example and told him the South would [illegible] if she could do no better, to beat Grant; but we thought we could do better and were going to give it a fair trial. The old gentleman pleased me as a man, but I was not surprised to find he has in him [illegible] a "bully" Democrat could we get him in proper training. And I am ready to swear that had he been Southern born and bred, he would have slept with a cockade in his night-cap and have been a "red-hot," before-breakfast secessionist. I do not think he would have "licked" his niggers hard, for he has a benevolent look—but as Grant has said about himself, he would have owned slaves as any other kind of property.

Commercial.

San Francisco's importation of raw furs last year was $2,000,000.

Three thousand dozen eggs were shipped to New York in one week by a firm in Bowling Green, Kentucky.

The value of opium imported through the Custom House in New York City, in the year 1871, was $1,299,091.

It is reported that 45,443 head of cattle were slaughtered at Kansas City, Missouri, during last season. This is nearly one-half the number packed in the whole country.

The oyster trade of New York employs about 150 sailing vessels of 55 to 250 tons each, with crews averaging, in the aggregate about 700 men.

The Electoral Vote of 1872.

We copy from the Chicago Tribune the following table, exhibiting the electoral vote in the election of 1872, with a statement of the popular majority in the same States in 1868:

Necessary to a choice	179	158,309

The Tribune adds the following remarks: The battle-field of the campaign will be in California, Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Alabama, Arkansas, Nebraska, New York, Pennsylvania, and Ohio.

Of the States which voted for Grant in 1868 the following will certainly vote the opposition ticket in case he is nominated: Missouri, 15 votes; North Carolina, 10 votes; Tennessee, 11 votes; West Virginia, 5 votes; total 41 votes. In addition to these will be the votes of the States which did not vote in 1868: Virginia, 11 votes; Texas, 8 votes; Florida, 3 votes; total, 22 votes—all of which will be given against Grant, making an increased opposition of sixty-three electoral votes.

A united opposition to Grant will carry all the States that voted against him in 1868, and Arkansas, 6 votes; California, 6 votes; Connecticut, 6 votes; Nebraska, 3 votes; Pennsylvania, 28 votes; Massachusetts, 13 votes; Wisconsin, 10; total, 78 votes—showing that a united opposition to Grant can carry over two-thirds of the electoral vote.

Each State is entitled to as many electors of President and Vice President as it has Senators and Representatives in Congress.

In most States, the electors are chosen by a majority vote. That is: If there are three sets of electors voted for, the set having the highest number of votes is chosen. But a candidate for President, in order to be successful, must have a majority of all the votes. The electoral college, as now constituted, consists of 317. Therefore, 159 are necessary for a choice. If there be three candidates for President, and neither of them receives a majority of the electoral college then there is no choice, and the election goes to the House of Representatives. The House must confine themselves to the three highest candidates voted for by the electors. The Representatives vote by States, and each State has but one vote; so that the power of Delaware is as great as that of New York. Each State has one vote. The majority of the State delegation casts its vote. A candidate, to be successful, must receive a majority of all the States, or nineteen States. If the delegation is divided, the vote of the State cannot be cast, and is therefore lost. As the present House is constituted, and it is upon the House that the election will devolve in the event there is no election by the people, nominally the Republicans hold twenty States; but its majority in ten of these it holds by the slender tenure of one single vote. Should there be a Greeley man found in two of these ten States, General Grant could not be elected.

Hurrah for the Petticoats.

Each day but adds to the magnificence of our admiration of the great unterrified female pantaloonatics. Their audacity knocks us into myriads of astounded but admiring cocked hats. We never go to the post-office but we feel irresistible inclinations to call forth our worthy Postmaster, who runs woman suffrage, and tell him to go it for a minute or two on that line to relieve our bosom. Olive Logan left us squashed out and flattened. Every day some inspiring narrator of the doings of the rooster sisterhood stirs us ten miles or more.

The last thing reported absolutely leaves us stranded forever on the bleak shores of a ghastly amazement.

Here it is:

NEW YORK, May 14—Tennie C. Claflin in a letter in the Sun to-morrow, applies for the Colonelcy of the 9th regiment, protesting that it would be wrong to the memory of its dead leader to select as his successor any one lacking the magnetic influence he possessed over the soldiers. She asks to be elected to the position, and pledges herself, if elected, to give such an impetus to recruiting that in thirty days the regiment will be the foremost in the State. She sees no objection, she says, to me, except that I am a woman, but Joan of Arc was a woman, and while I do not pretend to have her military genius, it has always been my desire to become actively connected with the service in whose rules and tactics I am well versed.

FROM MARIETTA.

The Crops—Political Aspect—The Next Representatives—Temperance and Education.

Editors Constitution: Your valuable paper having a large circulation in this community, we thought it would not be amiss to jot you a few lines as to "things in general" from this vicinity. Marietta is, as you are aware, a beautiful place, nestling romantically at the base of historic old Kennesaw. The people are refined, intelligent, social and genial. Business is a little dull at this season, the farmers being busily engaged on their farms. Wheat, corn and cotton are looking excellent. Rain is much needed, though none having fallen in over two weeks, consequently vegetation is suffering considerably.

The political aspect is difficult to understand thoroughly. The Cincinnati nominees are likely to be one of division in the Democratic ranks, as well as Republican. Some favor Greeley, while others denounce him. His sympathy with the "John Brown insurrection," in the "peaceful days of yore," with his inconsistency as to the "departure of the erring sisters," are repeatedly harped on. Grant, all admit, is not the man, for various good reasons. It is feared if he is re-elected, he will perpetuate his stay in the White House for life time, as Emperor Ulysses. His unfriendly treatment of the South, also, makes him extremely repugnant and repulsive to the Southern people. It is true he has less to account for in his past record than Greeley, yet that does not mend matters. Grant's majority in 1868 was only 309,588, and Virginia, Mississippi, Texas, and thousands of disfranchised Tennesseeans and Southerners did not vote, consequently it imbues the Democrats here with the sanguine hope of victory in the coming Presidential contest, as the division in the Radical party, with the increased Democratic gains in many Northern States, weakens the Republicans.

Davis, the Labor Reform candidate, has never withdrawn, as yet, and it is thought he will run, thus making the third Republican candidate for the Radicals to support. In this event, with these encouraging facts, we see no reason why the Democrats should not "take the tide at its flood," and place a Democrat in the White House. Let the Democrats keep an unbroken column, with perfect organization, and success, without sacrifice of principle, may yet be theirs. Cobb county is altogether Democratic. The Republican party having dwindled down to an insignificant shadow, and a very dark one at that.

Speculation is rife as to who will represent this grand old county in the next General Assembly. We hear several gentlemen spoken of. Among them are Colonel George Roberts, a practical farmer and President of the Cobb County Agricultural Society. Hon. W. D. Anderson, of course, is another, as he is the most popular man in the county, and the remainder are General Phillips, Reuben Latimer, and the veteran editor of the Marietta Journal, Robert M. Goodman. The latter is not only a gentleman of eminent ability and sound judgment, but he is a farmer, which throws much strength in his favor.

Good Templarism is also absorbing much attention in this community. There are two lodges in this place. The new one, Tallulah, of twenty-four members, is a "new departure" from the old one, Minnehaha, they having become irreconcilable owing to the fact that "dancing" was not thought advisable in connection with a Good Templar's picnic. The number of seceders, however, are few, but men of good standing. Minnehaha, we don't think, will feel their withdrawal, as she has a membership of one hundred and sixty-five, from all classes of society, lawyers, doctors, divines, mechanics, merchants, and many beautiful ladies, as Mr. Thrower, of your city, will testify.

As an educational centre, Marietta comes boldly to the front. She has two flourishing colleges, the Marietta Female College and the Georgia Mechanical, Agricultural and Military Institute—both now largely attended. We see Atlanta, with her Ponce de Leon spring, is trying to rival Marietta as a summer resort, but we still hold the palm. Don't you agree with the remark?

Respectfully, &c.,
FIDELITAS.

Southern Baptist Convention.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 10, 8 o'clock P. M.

Editors Constitution: A missionary meeting was held in the interest of the Foreign Mission Board. Congregation sang, "Rock of Ages cleft for me," and prayer made by Rev. T. A. Reid, formerly missionary in Central Africa, who also first addressed the meeting, and on map pointed out the localities of the station occupied by missionaries of the Southern Board.

Dr. Winkler, of South Carolina, then delivered a very able and eloquent address. He referred to Paul as our sufficient authority for missions, and his remarks were sublime.

Dr. Brantly then addressed the large audience in one of his happiest efforts. He spoke of the immense field open to us—"the great and effectual door" open to us in our time.

Then Dr. Williamson, of Baltimore, addressed the meeting in one of his happiest characteristic, practical efforts. He thanked God that in two things he had been in advance of his brethren—first, in the importance of early conversions. When, several years ago, he baptised some children so small he could not lead them into the pool, but took them in his arms and lowered them beneath the yielding wave, and thus "buried them with Christ in baptism," he was told he had done wrong, but he had never had better church members than those children had made for years, and were now.

But he had been in advance of his brethren, in estimating the moral power of women in the evangelization of the world. He argued in the light of Scripture, reason, and the nature of the work, the importance of "Bible Women." He said the first sermon ever preached on the Messiahship of Jesus, was preached by a woman, and he drew a contrast between Simeon and Anna, thus:

"When the infant Jesus was presented to Simeon, he said, 'Now letest thou thy servant depart in peace.' He had seen him, and now he wanted to go to Heaven. Anna saw him, and she thanked God too, and then went all about telling the news She had rather tell about it than go to Heaven.

The sensation produced by this remark, and many others, said in his peculiar manner, can better be imagined than described.

The meeting was designed "to manufacture public opinion," and no money was asked for.

By singing the "Missionary Hymn" and benediction by Dr. Cote, the meeting adjourned.

Specific Tax on Liquors Repealed.

ATLANTA, May 17, 1872.

Editors Constitution: I will thank you for space to say to those interested that the Legislature in January last repealed the specific tax of 20 cents per gallon on liquors, and now that article is taxable only as other personal property at its fair market value, and it must be so returned to the Tax Receiver, who in receiving the return will enter it on the Tax Digest under the head of "all other property." The tax to be paid in the fall to the Collector, when collecting the regular State tax.

The next we come to was Miss Odena, from Atlanta, a pretty blonde. She wore white, with blue overskirt—Gold.

Then comes a dashing young blonde, a Miss Sallie Emerson, from Tunnel Hill. She wore pink Swiss, with white tulle overskirt, a la polonaise. She was one of the attractions. By her beauty and her sparkling wit and humor, she drew quite a crowd around her whenever the dance was idle.

The next was a pleasant little beauty, a Miss Emma Hopwood, from Atlanta. She wore white with pink trimmings—she also wore a very fine wreath of buds upon her hair.

The next were the Misses Elliott, from Marietta, who were all tastefully arrayed, and by their pleasing ways drew around them quite a number of young gents.

The next was a Mrs. Burkett, a dark brunette, from Atlanta, who was one of the finest looking women on the floor. She wore a gray dress, a la Dolley Varden.

The next we come to was the charming and intelligent Miss Emma Ruede, from Marietta, who was elegantly attired, and by her courteous and gentle manners, won the admiration of many of the Knights of Terpsichore.

And last, but not least, is Miss Alice Lacy, a petite little blond who, we must say, reigned supreme, judging from the continual calls made upon her for her company in the dance.

MARSHAL'S REPORT.

RESOLUTIONS.

By Alderman Wells—

Whereas, There exists in the minds of some of the members of Council, a doubt as to the power of the City Council to make the contract with Oglethorpe University, as prayed for in the petition of over three hundred citizens of Atlanta, and said question having been referred to a committee of legal gentlemen, and said committee having reported that in their opinion the power had not been delegated to the City Council to adopt and carry out the resolution recommended by three or half of the joint committee on Public Schools and Finance.

Resolved, That the question of the City Council making the contract to pay Oglethorpe University fifty thousand dollars in twenty year bonds, in consideration of the tuition being made free to all the young men of Atlanta, on the terms set forth in the resolutions hereto appended, be submitted to a vote of the qualified voters of the city of Atlanta on Monday, the 3d of June, and if a majority of the votes polled be cast in favor of said contract, that the contract be executed whenever an act of the General Assembly is passed authorizing the same. And the tickets used at the election so held shall have the following words written or printed on them: the tickets in favor of the contract, "For the Contract," and those against it, "No Contract."

Alderman Mitchell opposed referring the question to the people, and wished to consign the whole subject now to the tomb of the capulets.

Hon. Joseph E Brown made a few remarks in support of the resolution, showing conclusively that there was no constitutional barrier in the way.

Dr. S. H. Stout opposed the resolution, contending that Council had no right to make a donation to a denominational college.

Resolution adopted without a dissenting voice.

By Alderman Hill—adopted:

Resolved, That the City Engineer give the grade according to the act of Legislature for the sidewalk on the North side of Decatur street, and that the curb stone be laid down immediately from the Willingham building to Mahoney's corner.

Whereas, The Street Lamps, and particularly those on the north side of the railroad, for some time past, have not been extinguished until sunrise, and some times an hour after sun rise; and,

Whereas, It is not officially known to the Mayor and Council who has received the contract for lighting and extinguishing said lamps,

Resolved, That the Chairman of the Committee on Gas and Lamps, report at the next meeting who has the contract, at what price, and whether or not gas light is cheaper to the tax-payers than day-light.

By Alderman Mitchell—adopted:

Resolved, That the Committee on Streets proceed immediately to lower the street railroad in front of A. Austell's and Moore & Marsh's buildings on Decatur street.

By Alderman T. A. Morris—adopted:

Resolved, That a special committee be appointed to investigate the grade which is now being cut on Decatur street, at the crossing of Bell street, which has cut off the entire use of Bell street.

Committee—T. A. Morris, Fowler, Roach, Hammock, Wells.

Alderman Fowler moved that the Street Committee give only respectable grades to the Street Railroad, witout reference to the grade law, which prevailed.

By Alderman Wilson—Adopted:

Resolved, That sewer pipe be put down the Railroad under Broad street bridge to exclude the offensive matter from sight that at present runs upon the surface of the ground.

By Alderman Wells—Adopted.

Resolved, That the Mayor appoint three managers to manage the election on the 3d of June, and make their return of the vote to the City Council at the next succeeding meeting after the election; that said election be held at the City Hall, and that notice of the same be published in the city papers.

POLICE PICNIC.

On motion, the police force were allowed to attend in a body a picnic, except fifteen, who shall remain on duty in the city.

New Georgia Bonds for Sale.

STATE TREASURER'S OFFICE, }
ATLANTA, GA., April 6th, 1872. }

The 7 per cent. State bonds, authorized by an Act approved January 18th, 1872, and issued for the purpose of exchange or redemption of old State bonds of Georgia maturing this year, are now ready for disposal according to the provisions of the bill.

Quite a number have already been sold to Georgians at 90 cents, and an opportunity for a few weeks is offered to obtain them at the State Treasury office at the above price, or they will be exchanged for the old bonds falling due, rating the old bonds at par and the new bonds at 90 cents, the State paying a difference of 10 per cent. in cash.

These new bonds are desirable on several accounts

1. They are issued in strict accordance with law.
2. No more are issued than barely enough to take up the old bonds maturing.
3. They are Redemption bonds, which are rated on the stock market as the very best class of securities.
4. The coupon interest will be paid promptly semi-annually, either in New York or the State Treasury.
5. They are exempt from State taxation.

Orders for purchase, or bonds for exchange can be sent to the State Treasurer in Atlanta, and will receive prompt attention.

There are strong reasons, for these new bonds being at par in a short time, and it is hoped Georgians will continue to show their appreciation, as has the highest Judicial officer of the State, by purchasing twenty-five thousand dollars for himself.

By the advice and approval of the Governor.
N. L. ANGIER,

He carried my satchel to school,
And me through the drifts carried, too;
Could I think why he hugged me so close?
If I couldn't, how could I? could you?

At eve he tied under my chin
My hood, with its bright ribbons blue;
Why he gazed in my face could I tell?
If I couldn't, how could I? could you?

He told me my eyes were so blue,
The brightest of any he knew;
I blushed and looked down—could I help it?
If I couldn't, how could I? could you?

He left on my cheek a warm kiss,
Then off with the lightning speed flew;
If I could, I'd have scolded and stamped;
If I couldn't, how could I? could you?

'Twas long years ago, and since then
He has spoken words loving and true;
I only leaned close to his breast,
For how could I help it? could you?

OUR ILLINOIS LETTER.

The Political Outlook--The Crops.

BUNKER HILL, ILL., May 12, 1872.

Editors Constitution: The result of the Cincinnati Convention has placed in the field as candidates Horace Greeley and Gratz Brown. Can the Democracy consistently sustain this ticket? Will it prefer defeat under its own captains to the elevation of a man whose whole political life has been antagonistic to the avowed principles of the party? Will it cater to the election of Grant, connive at a centralization of power by running a third ticket? These are serious questions, but they must be answered. Upon their solution depends the future of this country. The masses here are in favor of the Liberal ticket. Political leaders must, for the time, stand aside and let the people speak. The Democracy of the West, than whom a more gallant band does not exist, has never faltered in the path of duty. It has ever been found battling for right. Defeat after defeat has only served to render it more faithful to principle. But now, when it finds that the enemy can be divided and conquered, it is ready to ignore the past and only fight to gain the ascendency in the popular branch of the National Legislature. Should the Democratic Convention at Baltimore acquiesce in the nomination of Greeley and Brown, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Iowa and Wisconsin will return a Democratic delegation to Congress. Should Democratic candidates be placed before the people, this result may not be anticipated. These are not views hastily formed, but are the result of calm observance of the signs of the times. A triangular fight will insure the election of Grant and a continuance of his reign of terror. An indorsement of Greeley will break up the military ring at the capital and place at the head of government statesmen at least. No loathsome, breathing, pestilential carcas, such as Morton, will, under Greeley's administration, be the "power behind the thrown greater than the thrown itself." But the South, who is more deeply interested, must give direction to the movement of the party. With its decision we shall be content. If it prefers the continued disfranchisement of its interest by the election of Grant, let her so ordain it, and the Democracy of the West will vote for her man.

Wheat has been much injured by the chinch bug in the last few days. Heavy rains of the present week, however, have stopped their depredations. The potato bug (Colorado) is playing sad havoc with the potato crop. An entire failure will be the result. Col. Ingersol, I alluded to, is the liberal candidate for Governor.

Truly, etc.,
CALHOUN.

The Voorhees' Demonstration Against Greeley.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—The political sensation of the day has been the demonstration made in the House of Representatives this afternoon by Mr. Voorhees, of Indiana against the indorsement of the Cincinnati nominations by the Baltimore Convention. The entire Republican side flounced over to the Democratic aisles and evinced the deepest interest in every word that was uttered. The galleries were equally interested. Some of the Democratic members became greatly excited over the speech and sought by points of order and interjections to end it. Mr. Speer, of Pennsylvania, called Mr. Voorhees' attention to the fact that only Republicans applauded him; but the latter retorted that Mr. Speer had voted all last week with the Republicans on the tariff. Sherwood, of Pennsylvania, told Mr. Voorhees that the speech had been made in the interest of Grant, and that the Indiana member had better go to the White House and get his reward. Another member shouted, "Sold to Grant." Roosevelt, of New York, said that he had heard two days ago that this demonstration for Grant was to be made. Voorhees excitedly retorted that it was a falsehood that he was a party to any arrangement of the kind. Mr. Voorhees was implored to state whether he would support Greeley if the latter was nominated at Baltimore, to which he answered that he had not been in the habit of bolting Democratic nominations.

THE OBJECT OF THE DEMONSTRATION.

When he concluded, quite a number of Democratic members congratulated him, while others declined to do so; but the excitement over the hall was very great, and continued for some time. Nothing else was talked about. The speech was made, it was said, to influence the South to send anti-Greeley delegates to Baltimore. Mr. Voorhees, in conversation, subsequently stated that, as long as certain Democrats were working privately for Greeley, he had the right to express openly his views against him.

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION.

Several of the Democratic members, not desiring to participate in a general debate, very briefly took the position of awaiting the action of and abiding by the decision of the Baltimore Convention. Some of the party leaders say that the two-thirds rule enforced by the National Democratic Convention will defeat Mr. Greeley.—Special Telegraphic Correspondence Courier Journal.

☞ There is very little doubt that Dr. David Livingstone, the famous African explorer, is still living. He left England in 1865 for a thorough exploration of the country over which he had already travelled more than any other man. At different times reports of his death came from Africa, and one of them was so full in its details that it was accepted as true. But subsequently such accounts were received as to encourage the hope that he was still alive.

In 1871 the New York Herald organized an expedition, at a heavy expense, to go in search of the great explorer. This surpassed anything in the way of a newspaper enterprise ever known in the world before. The Herald now publishes a dispatch from Bombay, in India, announcing that Mr. Stanley, the head of the Herald expedition, has been heard from, and that Stanley is actually with Livingstone at Zanzibar, on the eastern coast of Africa—Montgomery State Journal.

Legislative.

The Iowa Legislature, by act, exempts sewing machines from execution.

By legislative enactment, Ohio has an insurance department, fixing the salary of the Superintendent at $3,000.

Iowa has a Canada thistle law, passed the past winter, making road supervisors the agents for destroying the pest.

The Common Council of Cleveland, Ohio, has prohibited the sale in that city of indecent periodicals, such as Day's Doings, etc.

The New York Legislature has enacted a law by which the administering of any drugs or using any means to procure abortion, except to save life, is declared a felony, the penalty to be not less than four nor more than twenty years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Insurance.

Life insurance companies, of Hartford, issued, last year, 42,055 policies, insuring $84,067,770.

The fire companies doing business in New York, during the last six months of 1871, received premiums to the amount of $3,158,596.

Josh Billings says that a large policy of life insurance doesn't exactly make a man's corpse smile at his widow, but it helps amazingly to get another fellow to do it for him.

☞ The St. Louis Republican of the 13th inst. says it has the names of nearly three hundred papers that are supporting the Greeley and Brown ticket cordially.

☞ A law of Pennsylvania makes the taking of money at the door of a theater on Sunday illegal, wherefore it is invariably taken at the window.

Reading Notices.

HOW NOT TO DIE.—Thousands fall a prey to disease not because the maladies that affect them are necessarily fatal, but because they lack the requisite amount of active vitality to make a valiant resistance to the enemy. It is a wise precaution to keep the body always in a state of defense—always prepared to "fend off" the germs of epidemic and other disorders, and to baffle the evil influence of damp miasma and sudden thermometrical changes. There is no difficulty in doing this. It is a fact as well authenticated as that two and two make four, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is specially adapted to this purpose, and for the simple reason that its invigorating and regulating properties are superior to those of any other medicine in the world. During the twenty years that it has been in general use, ample opportunities have been afforded to compare its medicinal properties with those of other preparations claiming to be of a similar class, and the result has been its adoption by the American people as the standard tonic of the age, its introduction into every civilized portion of the western hemisphere, and an annual sale which dwarfs into insignificance the demand for all its would-be competitors.

The record upon which its popularity rests is a curiosity in medical literature, for it includes an almost unlimited variety of human ailments and disabilities. In fact, no other remedy possesses such a variety of hygienic virtues, and it is to these characteristics that it owes its prestige as a household medicine.
may14-deod1w&w1t.

THE cause of Temperance finds some of its most insidious and dangerous foes in the many so-called "tonics" and "appetizers," made of cheap whisky and refuse liquors, finished up to suit depraved appetites, under the name of medicines. Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are none of these. They are not a beverage, but a genuine medicine, purely vegetable, prepared from California herbs by a regular physician. For all diseases of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bladder, skin and blood, they are an infallible and unrivalled remedy. may14-d1m.

BACHELORS' HAIR DYE.—This superb Hair Dye is the best in the world—perfectly harmless, reliable and instantaneous; no disappointment; no ridiculous tints or disagreeable odor. The genuine Wm. A. Batchelor's Hair Dye produces immediately a splendid black or natural brown, leaves the hair clean, soft, beautiful; does not contain a particle of lead or any injurious compound. Sold by all druggists. Factory, 16 BOND STREET, oct2—d1y New York.

HUMANS share with Horses the benefits derivable from the world-renowned Mexican Mustang Liniment. The most irrefragable testimony establishes the fact that this wondrous balm exerts the same soothing and healing influence when applied to the human cuticle, that it does in cases of spavin, founders, ringbone, poll evil, scratches, wind gall and other ailments of the horse which require outward treatment. It is, in fact, the most effectual of all external remedies for rheumatism, gout, stiffness of the neck, neuralgia, sore throat swellings, cuts and bruises of all kinds. may14-deod1w&w1t.

FALSE THEORIES OVERTHROWN.—We live under a new medical dispensation, very different from that under which so many of our forefathers died. The sick are no longer bled till they faint, nor gorged with mercury, nor prostrated with violent cathartics, nor blistered on their shaven heads. Ever since the introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, twenty years ago, renovation and restoration, not depletion and prostration, have been the watchwords of the judicious portion of the profession. The remarkable success of this famous vegetable preventive, invigorant and corrective has worked a complete revolution in the general treatment of disease. At first the dogmatic members of the faculty would not believe in it. "What!" they exclaimed, "cure liver complaint without mercury, chronic rheumatism without colchicum, fever and ague without quinine! Impossible!" But the most obstinate incredulity must yield in the end to practical demonstration. From that time to the present dyspepsia, biliousness, intermittent fevers, muscular diseases, nervous complaints and constipation have vanished under the operation of the great specific, in at least ninety per cent. of the cases in which it has been used as a remedy for those ailments, while as a preventive of all maladies generated by change of climate, sudden revulsions of temperature, epidemic poison in the atmosphere, and unwholesome water, its beneficial effects have been so obvious uniform as to secure the most perfect confidence in its properties as an antidote, safeguard and cure.
may6-deod1w&w1t.

MEANS WHAT HE SAYS.—Though "confirmations strong as proofs of Holy Writ," and as numerous as the sands on the sea shore, were produced to prove that Dr. Pierce, the proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, is in earnest and means what he says, when he offers $500 reward for any case of Catarrh which he cannot cure, yet there would be some skeptics and fogies who would continue to shout "Humbug!" "Humbug!!" "It cannot be, because Dr. Homespun says catarrh cannot be cured." Now, this Dr. Homespun is the identical, good-natured old fellow who honestly believes and persists in declaring that this earth is not round or spherical, but flat as a "slap-jack," and does not turn over, otherwise the water would all be spilled out of Deacon Bascom's mill pond. But astronomical science has positively demonstrated and proven that Dr. Homespun is wrong in supposing this earth to be flat and stationary, and medical science is daily proving the fact that he is no less mistaken and behind the times in regard to the curability of Catarrh. In short, it has been positively proven that this world moves, and that medical science is progressive—the opinion of Dr. Homespun to the contrary notwithstanding. That Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will cure Catarrh, thousands who have used it attest.

Then buy it, and use it, in doubt do not stand,
You will find it in drug stores all over the land.

THE GREAT SOUTH AMERICAN
JURUBEBA

is a powerful Tonic, especially adapted for use in the spring, when the LANGUID and DEBILITATED system needs strength and vitality; it will give vigor to the feeble, strength to the weak, animation to the dejected, activity to the sluggish, rest to the weary, quiet to the nervous, and health to the infirm.

It is a South American plant, which, according to the medical and scientific periodicals of London and Paris, possesses the MOST POWERFUL tonic properties known to Materia Medica, and is well known in its native country as having wonderful curative qualities and has been long used as a SPECIFIC in all cases of IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, DERANGEMENT OF THE LIVER AND SPLEEN, TUMORS, DROPSY, POVERTY OF THE BLOOD, DEBILITY, WEAKNESS OF THE INTESTINES, UTERINE OR URINARY ORGANS.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

It is strengthening and nourishing. Like nutricious food, taken into the stomach, it assimilates and diffuses itself through the circulation, giving vigor and health.

It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, acts directly on the secretive organs, and, by its powerful Tonic and restoring effect, produces healthy and vigorous action to the whole system.

SPECIAL NOTICE

TO THE

Married, or those about to be Married.

DR. A. M. MAURICEAU, author of "THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION" (of which over a million copies have been disposed since first published in 1848,) desires to state that he remains at same office as for upwards of twenty years, where his well known and celebrated remedies, having proved so reliable and efficient for all these years, can be obtained.

To the weakly, sickly, debilitated wife or mother, or the husband prostrated in his health, manly vigor and energies, or those suffering from indiscretions of youth, or premature old age, Dr. Mauriceau especially recommends the use of as at once recuperating the physical functions, giving health and inspiring energy to even the most debilitated, restoring the bloom of health and vigor, and elasticity and buoyancy of mind and intellect, and banishing low spirits, dyspepsia, and indigestion.

It has been introduced for upwards of twenty years and thousands are now enjoying the fullest blessings of health in mental and physical strength and personal beauty and given these priceless gifts to their children.

It is not intoxicating, there being no alcoholic spirits in its composition, but exhilarating. It establishes the health upon a permanent basis.

It gives bright eyes, clear, brilliant complexion, makes new and pure and rich blood.

It is, besides, most delicious to the palate. Price, $3 a bottle, or $15 a case, containing six bottles.

Dr. Mauriceau does not intend to have "MORAND'S ELIXIR" classed among the countless advertised remedies, as its great intrinsic merit and wonderful recuperative powers, as certified to by certificates, are well known. His only object is merely to announce where it can be obtained. AT SAME OFFICE AND address for TWENTY YEARS, 129 Liberty street, N. Y. Dr. A. M. Mauriceau, to whom all orders must be addressed. may2—w1m
